Audley Inglewood

GOOD MOVE

WELCOME

Inglewood luxury retirement village

Built on land once held by William the Conqueror in the glorious West Berkshire countryside lies Audley Inglewood. Proudly standing in the centre is an exquisite manor house, home to stunning apartments and the Audley Club, which includes a luxury health club, swimming pool, library and restaurant, together with the bar and bistro.

TRANQUILITY

Historic elegance

Audley Inglewood is a luxury development of over 90 elegant properties near the village of Kintbury and two miles from Hungerford in West Berkshire.

At the heart of the village is Inglewood House, a magnificent manor house that has been carefully rebuilt and returned to its former glory. Behind Inglewood House, the landscaped gardens are home to the lovingly restored Clock Tower and the original Walled Garden. These are surrounded by 39 acres of parkland, beautiful protected woodland and hidden historical treasures including a religious grotto.

A walk through history

In the 19th century Jane Austen's family often visited cousins in Kintbury, but the village's history extends far beyond this. The Domesday Survey records it occupying lands on both sides of the River Kennet. The southern side was held by William the Conqueror and Inglewood was one of its manors.

In 1928 Inglewood was purchased by the Catholic De La Salle brothers to be used as a monks' college. Nearly 50 years later it was transformed into a luxury health hydro.

Whether you want to be active, exercise and make the most of the local amenities, or simply take it easy, take stock and enjoy a little peace – it's entirely up to you.

Picturesque Kintbury

Kintbury was named by The Sunday Times as one of England's top ten most sought-after villages. This pretty village is situated among some of the best countryside in West Berkshire and yet is conveniently close to the A4 and mainline station from London, with junctions 13 and 14 of the M4 nearby.

There is also much to enjoy locally, with The Kennet and Avon Canal quietly connecting the famous antique shops and independent boutiques of Hungerford with Newbury's colourful markets and contemporary retail shops.

Take a stroll up and around Walbury Hill and you will be rewarded with stunning views over Kennet Valley and the Hampshire Downs.

Famous connections

You're not far from Highclere Castle, remaining in the Carnarvon family for well over 300 years and whose 5th Earl discovered the tomb of Tutankhamun in the 1920s. It is better known today as Downton Abbey from the popular TV series.

The entire area surrounding Audley Inglewood is part of the North Wessex Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), and just 15 miles north of the estate is the hill where English author Richard Adams based his classic heroic animal fantasy novel, 'Watership Down'.

AUDLEY

CARE

As time moves on and some tasks become less easy, there is no reason why you shouldn't continue to live the life you know, in the home you have made. All you need is a visit from a trusted, friendly face; someone to listen or lend a helping hand when you would appreciate it.

Care of the highest level

As one of the UK's most respected care providers and a leader in its field, Audley is recognised, registered and regularly audited by the Care Quality Commission (CQC). Which means the carer you invite into your home is rigorously trained and highly qualified, and our standard of care is second to none.

Safe and secure

Not only do we take care of all the exterior maintenance of your home but we also have CCTV that covers the village. We have staff on call every minute of every day, so if you need anything you can just pick up the phone. This means you can go on holiday or visit relatives for as long as you please, knowing your home is looked after. Within each property there is an intruder, smoke and heat alarm connected to the central monitor alarm. There is also an emergency call system.

And don't forget that your neighbours are looking for the same stress-free life as you, so they fully understand and respect your wishes, as you do theirs.

How can we help?

Everyone has their own tastes and needs, so our care is made to measure and you only pay for the services you use. Our discreet and friendly staff will help you with as little or as much as you want, including:

A hand with domestic tasks like cooking, cleaning and ironing.

Assistance with getting up and going to bed, whatever the time.

Someone to go shopping with you or for you, or to collect prescriptions.

Help with personal care or eating. Someone to walk the dog or feed the cat.

A little help and company if you are recovering from illness.

Live-in, sleep-in or night care, or simply holiday cover.

Long-term, short-term or emergency care.

Someone to accompany you to appointments or social activities.

BUILDING

FUTURES

In 1983, our Chief Executive Nick Sanderson founded a company called Beaumont - which, over time, developed the conventional care home concept into something completely different, the UK's very first luxury retirement villages. Thirty years on, we have grown to be a successful company. Our solid foundations and innovative thinking have attracted major financial backing from companies, including Private Patients Plan, 3i and, most recently, Moorfield Group.

Growing communities

Willicombe Park in Royal Tunbridge Wells and Hollins Hall in Harrogate, our first retirement villages, opened back in 2000. We are proud to say they are now thriving communities. And thanks to our financial backing, we are also pushing ahead with our plans to build further luxury villages across the UK.
